Dear Mr. Bernays:

During Mr. Dulles' absence from the city on a brief holiday I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of March 25, 1958, and its enclosure thereto.

Your interest in forwarding to us a copy of your study "What the British Think of Us" is indeed appreciated, and I am making it available to our interested people here in the Agency.

Sincerely yours,

Executive Officer

Mr. Edward L. Bernays

[Redacted]

Dear Mr. Bernays:

Mr. Dulles is taking a short vacation in the South and your letter of 25 March has been forwarded to me.

We agree that it is imperative that the people of the Free World, and especially our close allies, the British, make every effort to do away with their hostilities toward each other in order to devote their full attention to the urgent problems relating to their relations with the rest of the world.

Your interest in the significant problem of building good feeling between the people of this country and those of Great Britain is to be commended.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted]
